PARKER VEIN COAL LANDS AT PRIVATE SALE.—
The undersigned trastees will sell at private sale, one of the most valuable coal properties in Allegany County, consisting of what is called the Jackson, Totter and Westernport properties, containing about seventsen thundred and four acres of the fifteen feet vein of coal, fronting on the George's Creek, or on the line of the George's Creek Coal and fron Company's Railroad, a distance of three miles. The extended front of these coal lands renders every acre of coal available, and makes the property the most valuable in the Gumberland coal helds, as it is capable of being divided into twenty sparate coal preperties. The front lands contain about 1,400 acres of the fifteen feet coal vein, and also underlaid entirely with the six feet vein. The big vein is of the jurest coal of the George's Creek Coal Field. On the Jackson and part of the Westernport are what are called the "Jackson Mines," and village of Jacksonville. These mines have been opened and worked for about one plete order, with a capacity to mize 500 tons of coal daily. The village of Jacksonville, which belongs to the Jackson Mines, comprises between forty and fifty first class miners' tenements, a large store house and office, with all the necessary railroads, tram roads, wheel houses, load house, and all other mecessary fixtures for doing a very large coal business. The above coal lands are well known and regarded among the best coal lands are well known and regarded among the best coal lands in that region, and can be fully shown to persons destring to purchase will find the undersigned at Cumberland, Md. M ISS AGNES ROBERTSON.—I HAVE WRITTEN AND adapted for this lady several dramatic works, entitled "The Fairy Star," "The Young Actress," "And Blake," and others, to which her acting has given such peculiarity that certain obscure performers in the Weekern States have stoken, or caused to be stoken, my mann-scripts, and have obtained engagements on the strengths of pussessing these dramas. And whereas, on Tuesday, the 7th, and Wednesday, the 8th November, shorthand writers were employed to attend the representation of "The Fairy Star," at the Broadway Theatre, and were detected in taking down that piece; and on Friday, 10th, written copies of the piece were offered for safe, at after dollars a piece. Take notice, that all my works, played by Miss Agnes Robertson, have been, and will be, fress time to time, duly copyrighted according to act of Congress; and all managers of theatres permitting the same to be represented will be proceeded against at law for the infringement.
